V1

Neon lights begin to glow.
The crowds raise up a glass.
Fixin' their personas for the night they hope they'll have.

Dressin' up and steppin' out.
The scene is comin' alive.
Everyone is headin' out
'cuz it's a Saturday night.

CHORUS

It's been a long long working week.
I'm tired to the bone.
Another Saturday night my dear
and I'd really rather stay at home.

Play some music. Pour some wine.
Put away the phone.
Another Saturday night my dear
and I'd really rather stay at home.

V2

All the clubs are wall to wall.
Lines stream out of the door.
All the hearts are pulsing hard.
Hormones starting to roar.

Anyone who's anyone is shining in the lights.
Excitement charges through the air
'cuz it's a Saturday night.

CHORUS

It's been a long long working week.
I'm tired to the bone.
Another Saturday night my dear
and I'd really rather stay at home.

Play some music. Pour some wine.
Put away the phone.
Another Saturday night my dear
and I'd really rather stay at home.

REPRISE

It's been a long long working week.
I'm tired to the bone.
Another Saturday night my dear
and I'd really rather stay at home.

Play some music. Pour some wine.
Put away the phone.
Another Saturday night it's true and I'd really rather just be with you.
