V1

One day you will find
all the darkness on your mind
will settle to the bottom of the jar.

And when you lift your head
you'll see the sun instead
'cuz the world has turned and you have come so far

CHORUS

Today's just a day, not forever.
Every storm gives way to light.
It's ok to feel and in time you will heal.
And you'll be in the sweet by and by.

V2

Troubles do not stay.
Every shadow falls away.
Pain is just a way to know you care.

Stay strong and keep your song.
And as you move along
it's both joys and scars that make you who you are.

CHORUS

Today's just a day, not forever.
Every storm gives way to light.
It's ok to feel and in time you will heal.
And you'll be in the sweet by and by.
Today's just a day, not forever.
Every storm gives way to light.
It's ok to feel and in time you will heal.
And you'll be in the sweet by and by.
