Original work. Lyrics, chords and melody recorded Dec. 28, 2019. Released 2025.

V1

There's a bird in the rain and it's sittin out there
singin' hallelujah.
And the song fills the day
with a golden sway
that flows right through ya.

CHORUS

And I wonder what it is that swings this world around.
And what it is that lights the tepid moon.
And I wonder what it is that breaks the darkness down.
And I wonder if it's you... oooh-oooh-oooh-oooh.

V2

And the sun from the start rises like a chorus.
Anyone can hear it.
And the trees raise their arms
in a heavenly sway,
pickin' up spirits.

CHORUS

And I wonder what it is that swings this world around.
And what it is that lights the tepid moon.
And I wonder what it is that breaks the darkness down.
And I wonder if it's you... oooh-oooh-oooh-oooh.

V3

There's a bird all alone
in the dead of night
singin' hallelujah.
And my heart sings along
in a golden sway.
I recognize the music.

CHORUS

And I wonder what it is that swings this world around.
And what it is that lights the tepid moon.
And I wonder what it is that breaks the darkness down.
And I wonder if it's you...
Yeah I wonder if it's you...
Oh I wonder if it's you... oooh-oooh-oooh-oooh.
