V1

The years blow by full of September.
Knockin' 'round outside my door.
I'm almost too old to remember how it can feel to let it go ... oh oh
Across the night lake I hear music.
Silvery strands that tug at the heart.
Go ahead soul, go and find it.
I'll wait for you here in the dark.

CHORUS

Run away little heart.
Go and find what you're seeking
though the world can be cold and full of risk.
Godspeed little heart.
You've outgrown my safe keeping
and may you find all the loves that I've missed.

V2

The woods rise up with fear and lost causes.
Yet star light falls like heavenly rain.
And clinging to the screen of nighttime are all the things that mighta been... oh oh
Maybe love can leave you broken.
Maybe it hurts more not to try.
If you go, I won't stop you.
I'll wait for you here in the quiet.

CHORUS

Run away little heart.
Go and find what you're seeking
though the world can be cold and full of risk.
Godspeed little heart.
You've outgrown my safe keeping
and may you find all the loves that I've missed.

BRIDGE OUTRO

There's so much more out there
if you could just set sail,
explore all the chances left un-lived.
Go out there uncovered and maybe discover
all of the loves out there I've missed.
Run away little heart...
