V1

You care enough to wonder what it is we're under
but not enough to care.
You ask a lot of questions
but not enough to mention that you're not really there.

CHORUS

Ooh, we're swingin' on a star
that dimly burns so far in the dark.
Ooh, we're strollin' by the tide
together side by side, yards apart.

V2

I wonder if it's friendship.
We're far too close to end it.
Too far away for love.
I wander in the vastness.
Don't care enough to ask us what we're thinking of.

CHORUS

Ooh, we're swingin' on a star
that dimly burns so far in the dark.
Ooh, we're strollin' by the tide
together side by side, yards apart.

We care enough to wonder
what it is we're under
but not enough to care.
