V1

Another day gone.
A setting sun.
We're here together
as if we've just begun.

We watch the sky change
as time goes by.
It's just you and I.

CHORUS

We never built any castles out of stone.
We never sailed the world or found a pot of gold.
But we've been happy just living side by side
in a world of you and I.

V2

Another day gone.
The night birds sing.
It doesn't matter
what tomorrow brings.

We watch the drifting
fireflies.
It's just you and I.

CHORUS

We never built any castles out of stone.
We never sailed the world or found a pot of gold.
But we've been happy just living side by side
in a world of you and I.

V3

Another year gone.
And it's ok.
We're full of simple joys
from ordinary days.

The sun is rosy.
The breeze a lullaby.
Just for you and I.
Just for you and I.
It's just for you and I.
