V1

Almost lover, phantom girl
I'm ponded with regret.
All the time we nearly had
I rue upon it yet.
Our hearts beat in cursive
but we never wrote it down.
Now the script is desolate.
The memories in the ground.

CHORUS

I miss you more than I remember you
the love that didn't start.
I miss you more than I remember you
old ashes in my heart.

V2

The moon has come up brazenly,
a full and bitter stain.
Onward through the universe
through grasses ticked with Spain.
I see you in the flaws of glass.
Distortion, in my mind.
A heavy box of mighta beens
and bones of severed time.

CHORUS

I miss you more than I remember you
the love that didn't start.
I miss you more than I remember you
old ashes in my heart.

OUTRO

I miss you more than I remember you.
I miss you more
than I remember you.
I miss you more
than I remember you.
I miss you more
than I remember you.
Old ashes in my heart.
