V1

Sittin' here with my guitar
I ain't too pretty and I ain't too proud but i'm about as carefree as can be.

I left behind the neighborhood where the talk is cheap and the stories good found myself some simple honesty.
This is just the way it's gonna be.

CHORUS

Tired of my livin' lies and
tired of the compromisin'
tryin' to live my life for someone else.
Had a job and couldn't take it.
Had a life and couldn't fake it.
It's time to do some livin' for myself.

V2

Had a girlfriend for a minute
but I got a dream and she ain't in it.
Decided not to let her bring me down.

Went out the door and down the hill.
Walked on past the rumor mill.
Headed to the other side of town.
It's where i'm gonna be, from now on.

CHORUS

Tired of my livin' lies and
tired of the compromisin'
tryin' to live my life for someone else.
Had a job and couldn't take it.
Had a life and couldn't fake it.
It's time to do some livin' for myself.

BRIDGE

oooh oooh I'm over everything
oooh oooh I'm over everything

V3

Family comes with expectations.
Governments got regulations.
Landlord says my rent is overdue.

I hear the churches ring their bells.
They send their people down to hell
if they don't act the way they tell them to.
Well that just ain't a thing I'm gonna do.

CHORUS

Tired of my livin' lies and
tired of the compromisin'
tryin' to live my life for someone else.
Had a job and couldn't take it.
Had a life and couldn't fake it.
It's time to do some livin' for myself.

BRIDGE

oooh oooh I'm over everything
oooh oooh I'm over everything
